Non-Discrimination Statement

In accordance with Federal civil rights law and U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) civil rights regulations and policies, the USDA, its Agencies, offices, and employees, and institutions participating in or administering USDA programs are prohibited from discriminating based on race, color, national origin, religion, sex, gender identity (including gender expression), sexual orientation, disability, age, marital status, family/parental status, income derived from a public assistance program, political beliefs, or reprisal or retaliation for prior civil rights activity, in any program or activity conducted or funded by USDA (not all bases apply to all programs). Remedies and complaint filing deadlines vary by program or incident.

Persons with disabilities who require alternative means of communication for program information (e.g., Braille, large print, audiotape, American Sign Language, etc.) should contact the responsible Agency or USDA's TARGET Center at (202) 720-2600 (voice and TTY) or contact USDA through the Federal Relay Service at (800) 877-8339. Additionally, program information may be made available in languages other than English.

To file a program discrimination complaint, complete the USDA Program Discrimination Complaint Form, AD-3027, found online at How to File a Program Discrimination Complaint and at any USDA office or write a letter addressed to USDA and provide in the letter all of the information requested in the form. To request a copy of the complaint form, call (866) 632-9992. Submit your completed form or letter to USDA by: (1) mail: U.S. Department of Agriculture, Office of the Assistant Secretary for Civil Rights, 1400 Independence Avenue, SW, Washington, D.C. 20250-9410; (2) fax: (202) 690-7442; or (3) email: program.intake@usda.gov.

USDA is an equal opportunity provider, employer, and lender.

Lunch Account Policies Delinquent Account Policies

- ◆ Each student has PIN they should memorize.
- ◆ Lunch accounts will be billed to each family at the end of the each month. Families are welcomed and encouraged to pay ahead if they choose.
- ◆ Bills are now emailed each month.
- ◆ Parents and/or students can check account balances through Parent Portal on Infinite Campus, or by contacting Jeana Hunsucker or Elizabeth Henderson at the school office, 375-3241.
- ◆ If payment cannot be made each month, please contact the school to set up a payment plan. We are happy to work with you in any way we can.
- ◆ All accounts need to be paid in full by May 31 each school year. Accounts not paid in full by May 31 will begin collection procedures, starting with a letter to the responsible party. If there is no response, additional notifications will be sent and/or parent will be called. After it is judged that the usual methods to collect money owed the district have failed, then action will be taken to collect in small claims court.

Free & Reduced Meal Applications

- ◆ Applications are not required to be filed for the 2021-22 school year to receive free meals. Parents are still encouraged to file an application as they are utilized for grant-related purposes for the district as well as additional benefits for students and families (such as the p-EBT benefits). The results from filing an application will not affect your child(ren) receiving free meals for the 2021-22 school year. If you have questions, please let us know.
- ◆ All applications are confidential. They are available on the school website or from the school office.
- ◆ Applications are effective as of the date they are received and/or approved by the school. We make every effort to process applications the same day we receive them, however, all are processed within two business days.
- ◆ Current year applications extend 30 days into the following school year, or until a new application is filed, whichever is first. If you have do not file a new application within the time period, your benefits will expire and you will be charged the full price for meals.

- ◆ Should your financial situation change during the year, you can apply for benefits at any time.
- ◆ Children are automatically eligible for free meals if they:
 - ◆ Are in households receiving benefits from SNAP, FDPIR, or TANF;
 - ◆ Are foster children under the legal responsibility of an agency or court;
 - ◆ Are homeless, runaway, or migrant.

Camp Crook & Ludlow Schools Special Milk Program

Since the rural schools are not able to participate in the school lunch program, they are part of the Special Milk Program.

White and chocolate milk are available to all students each day at their respective schools. For the 2021-2022 school year, all rural milk is free of charge.
